Comments from the Chair

Greetings KLS! The last meeting of the year is finally here. We have a faculty and undergraduate research award to give away, so please join us for a night of presentations from our own local researchers. It is also election time of year, and we can't continue to host programs without the votes, volunteers, and support of everyone in KLS. We look forward to seeing you once more this year at Bethel, who is hosting their first KLS meeting.
