Comments from the Chair

GREETINGS. Kentucky Lake Section welcomes the winners of our Section awards to present their work. Ms. Erica Gray will tell of her innovative teaching methods to engage her high school chemistry students, and our Undergraduate award winner, Ms. Brittany Hagler will tell of her research experience at Sandia National Lab on modeling combustion reactions. ~David Wing, Chair

What's Happening in KLS

- Science Centers for kids age 0-14 continue during monthly meetings. See the attached flyer for this month's activity and plan to bring your kids to one of the meetings this year!
- ACCM at Murray is scheduled for April 11th . Registration information is attached.
- Planning for dedication ceremonies of a National Historical Chemistry Landmark are underway. Mark your calendars to attend two events on May 11. A morning dedication at Lyon County Public Library at 10 am followed by lunch, and a second dedication at Murray State Chemistry Department at 4 pm with a reception. Local government officials and representatives from ACS National are expected to attend and we would love to see strong support from the local section.
